IV. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

-President Meservey began her report by noting that two Vision Project reports were shared at today's meeting. The first is entitled The Degree Gap: Honing In on College Access, Affordability & Completion in Massachusetts, June 2016 and represents data from all three segments: State Universities, Community Colleges and UMass. Salem State is mentioned on several pages. The report is available at www.mass.edu/vpreport and is the fourth annual report on the Vision Project.

The second document is entitled Vision Project Dashboard, Salem State University, May, 2016. This is the DHE's dashboard report for our university. President Meservey highlighted several points in the attached memo.

President Meservey then turned her attention to a June 7, 2016, press release from the Department of Higher Education which detailed that a committee of the MA Board of HED voted to amend the leave policies for non-unit professionals (NUPs) at the state's fifteen community colleges and nine state universities in an effort to better align such policies with those governing University of MA employees, and public higher education systems and MA state employees (ROP -16-02). The vote is subject to a final vote by the full Board of Higher Education on Tuesday, June 14. The Board's Fiscal Affairs and Administrative Policy (FAAP) Committee voted to eliminate the current policy allowing employees to convert unused vacation days into sick time (going forward any vacation days that remain over a 64-day balance would be forfeited by the employee if not used). Additionally, the Committee voted to reduce the number of vacation days to 25 (a reduction from a previous allocation of 30 days per year for the longest-serving employees). Standardize the number of personal days allotted to employees across all three segments of the higher education system.

V. REPORT OF THE CHAIR

VI. OLD BUSINESS

Salem State University Sustainability Special Committee – Chair Mattera introduced the next topic and thanked Trustee Lutts for his chairmanship of the Sustainability Committee and for spearheading an open, honest and inclusive process. Chair Mattera then suggested discussing the recommendations among the trustees and deferring action until the October meeting. Trustee Lutts summarized the committee's meetings, Earth Week Panel presentation and recent May 5th Open meeting and then offered the following

Committee Recommendations:

 Greenhouse gas emissions and reduction targets: Salem State University has made a commitment through the Presidents' Climate Commitment of Second Nature to be carbon neutral by 2050 – we are reaffirming this commitment. In addition, we need to set interim goals and these goals will be determined as we prepare the report due to Second Nature in January of 2017. The Report of the President

Report of the Chair

Old Business expectation is that we will have goals set to reduce our carbon footprint by 50% and 75% at dates certain and TBD.

- 2) Transportation: A significant portion of the greenhouse gas emissions are tied to transportation and the goals above will be directly related to our ability to reduce the use of private vehicles by our community. To support this effort, Salem State will focus on increased use of alternative transportation such as public transportation (including advocacy for a South Salem train stop) and creating a bike friendly environment with bike racks and lanes. Further increasing on-campus housing will reduce the number of students commuting to campus and our goal is to increase on-campus housing to 50% of full-time undergraduates within 8 10 years.
- 3) LEED building: We will strive to achieve LEED Gold for all new construction on campus and LEED Silver where possible with renovations. Further we will dedicate a portion of capital improvement funds for energy reduction and/or other sustainable goals each year and add a criterion to our rating system for project prioritization to include benefits to sustainability.
- 4) Energy efficiency and renewal: Incorporated in other categories.
- 5) Waste disposal and purchasing: We will continue to expand our recycling efforts through actions such as single stream recycling. Data will be collected to baseline our current efforts and to set goals by January 2017. For Purchasing, we did not address this element and will incorporate it into our work due to Second Nature in January 2017.
- 6) Finance and Socially Responsible Investing: The recommendation to the Trustees is to:
  - a) Instruct our financial advisors not to invest any direct holdings in the coal industry (we do not currently have such investments). This would be in effect immediately, and would result in the permanent elimination of 100 of the "Carbon 200" companies from our investment portfolio.
  - b) Instruct our financial advisors to consider further divestment from direct holdings in the balance of the "Carbon 200" (Fossil Fuel Free) companies to the extent the advisors believe it is financially prudent with the goal of achieving full divestment in five years.
  - c) Instruct our financial advisors to invest in alternative energy companies/efforts to the extent the advisors believe it is financially prudent.
- 7) Education, research, and community outreach: We will support the development of certificate and degree programs that prepare our graduates to work in the fields of sustainability. The plan for such programming will be incorporated into our university strategic plan which will be developed during AY16-17. We will also establish programs on campus to educate our community (campus and beyond) regarding the importance of sustainability and the social and economic consequences of climate change. This work will be incorporated into our Talent Development Programming and special programs offered by our academic and student life work.
- 8) We will create metrics for and assess the climate resiliency of our campus.

The trustees engaged in a discussion regarding the financial implications, the need to amend the investment policy and the timetable for change. It was determined that the Board should postpone action until the fall Board meeting and asked the Finance and Facilities Committee to provide additional information with regard to investment risks and benefits at its September meeting.

Diversity:

AGB Conference Report – Trustee Davis

Trustee Davis attended the AGB National Conference held April 17-19, 2016 in Washington, DC, and shared with the group a summary of information from a diversity session which addressed the call for boards and presidents to be proactive in creating inclusive communities while rising to the leadership challenge of positioning our institution and all of our students for a successful future. The report is attached hereto in its entirety (Attachment A)

Diversity Statistics – Executive Director, Strategic Planning & Decision Support Chunju Chen shared a packet of data representing the diversity of our campus community over the past five years. The data was obtained from the Department of Higher Education and our Human Resource Department. This information will inform our recruitment plan which will be shared with the Board in the fall. #### VII. NEW BUSINESS

Retrenchment (elimination of one APA position) General Counsel and Vice President of Administration John Keenan advised the board that the APA contract dictates that this matter must be brought to the board for action. He then discussed that the university is continuously seeking efficiencies and that changing technology is at times disruptive. The matter at issue is an employee who has worked at the university since 2007, is a member of the APA and works in IT. Currently, the employee is the only staff assigned to support software which is migrating to the cloud so the APA position is no longer needed and the recommendation to the board is retrenchment of the position. The APA union was notified of the retrenchment recommendation, board meeting and the opportunity to speak to the Board and did not ask to come before the Board. There was no Union Representation at the meeting. The employee was present but did not request to be heard. With no further discussion, objection or comments Trustee Segal offered the motion, Trustee Chisholm seconded the motion and it was unanimously

VOTED: Per Article IX, Reduction in Force, Section C, Retrenchment Procedures in the Event of Changing Needs of the University, and based on the recommendation of the University Administration, the Board approves the abolishment and retrenchment of one full-time staff associate position in Information Technological Services (as that position is described in the retrenchment Memorandum dated June 1, 2016). (NB 16-01) New Business

Retrenchment – Elimination of one APA Position Nominating Committee Report: Chair Lutts reported that the Nominating Committee had polled the members and was pleased to report that Trustees Mattera and Davis were again willing to serve as Chair and Vice Chair respectively. With no further discussion, objection or comments Trustee Lutts offered the following motion which was read by Trustee Chisholm and seconded by Trustee Segal and it was unanimously

VOTED: The Board of Trustees of Salem State University hereby elects the slate of Paul Mattera as chair and Alyce Davis as vice chair as its officers for FY2017, effective July 1, 2016. (NB – 16-02)

Election of Executive Committee: Chair Mattera announced that the board must also elect members to the Executive Committee to join the committee's ex officio members. The chair called for nominations to the committee and Trustee Segal nominated past chair, Trustee Scott, Trustee Lutts and Trustee Malcolm. Chair Mattera called for any additional nominations or discussion and hearing none it was unanimously.

VOTED: To appoint Trustees Scott, Lutts and Malcolm to the Executive Committee for the FY 2017.

Presidential Review Committee: Chair Mattera noted that each year a presidential review must be prepared and submitted to the commissioner in October. Chair Mattera appointed Trustee Davis as chair of the Presidential Review Committee and Trustees Chisholm and Segal to assist with the report. He thanked the trustees for their willingness to serve on the committee.

He advised those present that there would be no further business and the Board would not reconvene following Executive Session. ## Salem State University

Standards for the Expenditure of Trust Funds

Definition

The term "trust funds" as used in public higher education refers to non-appropriated funds utilized by the University. "Trust funds" are created when a non-appropriated revenue source is generated. Significant revenue sources may result in stand-alone, individual "trust funds" while smaller revenue sources may be pooled.

Revenue Sources

Salem State University has two primary sources of income: state appropriations and funds held in trust, which are generated primarily from fees, gifts and grants, auxiliary revenues, capital financing and miscellaneous sources. These trust fund revenues are used to complement state appropriations in order to ensure sufficient funding for the University programs.

The expenditure of state appropriated funds is governed by detailed state regulations which control expenditures for the University. Statutory authority for enforcing state regulations rests with several entities including the State Auditor, the State Comptroller and the Department of Higher Education.

Although technically "public" funds, trust funds are not "appropriated" funds and, therefore, are not subject to the same spending rules and regulations as appropriated funds. In many cases, other external regulations govern expenditures of trust funds. For example, the Massachusetts State College Building Authority governs the Residence Hall Trust Fund. Where external, third-party regulations do not exist, responsibility for regulating and controlling the expenditure of trust funds rests with the Salem State University Board of Trustees. The Department of Higher Education does not have statutory authority for trust funds.

Role of Trust Funds

For Salem State University, trust funds play an important role in financing the education of our students. The statutory authority for trust funds resides in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 15A, Section 5 and Chapter 73, Section 14, as well as various other statutes governing public institutions of higher education. These statutes allow the Department of Higher Education and Boards of Trustees to create financial accounts to fund and account for certain campus projects, programs and activities. These statutes stipulate that all income received be held in trust and be expended for the purposes for which the trust funds were established. This is also a fundamental tenant of the required form of accounting within the nonprofit higher education industry, which is known as fund accounting.

Trust funds are used in connection with a variety of campus activities such as auxiliary services (e.g. student housing, parking and food service), student activities and public services. Revenues generated through each activity are used to fund the costs of the associated program or activity. The expectation is that over time most trust funds will become self-supporting.

These guidelines and policies form the basis for the procedures to be followed in establishing, administering and expending trust funds at Salem State University in conjunction with the internal control policies and the general and specific policies and procedures for accounting and fiscal administration of the University.

Purpose of Standards

It is important that the development, utilization and management of trust funds be conducted in a manner that complies with applicable laws and statutes and meets with the approval of the Salem State University Board of Trustees. Standards for the expenditure of trust funds are intended to provide some guidance and suggestions on selected expenditures made in the interest of promoting the mission of the University. These standards provide greater clarity and uniformity in the determination of appropriate and inappropriate expenditures of these funds.

Underlying Principles

A number of important principles underlie these standards:

- (1) Standards should not be construed as an attempt to usurp campus based authority or to centralize decision-making. Salem State University must have the flexibility to fulfill its distinctive mission within the public higher education system.
- (2) There is no substitute for personal ethics and sound judgment. Expenditures of trust funds should be made with the assumption that those decisions and choices will become public knowledge.
- (3) Accountability is a critical component of local autonomy. The University will be held accountable for choices and decisions, including the expenditure of trust funds.
- (4) Salem State University is a member of, and participates within, the larger community it serves. As such, the University must interact with community groups and civic associations and it is appropriate for it to make modest and limited expenditures in support of these entities.
- (5) State universities, like private universities, must engage in activities that promote employee morale, generate philanthropic support and enhance the wellbeing of the University. Accordingly, reasonable and appropriate expenditures to support such activities can and should be made.
- (6) Trust funds should be spent in a manner which is reasonable and prudent. Travel, entertainment and other expenditures should be made in moderation and good taste. Additional guidelines are detailed in the University's Business Expense Policy, policy governing On/Off-Campus Events, Recruitment Policy, Travel Policy, and Gift Card Policy referenced in the Addendum.

Responsibility and Reporting

- Responsibility for these specific trust fund guidelines and regulations rests with the Salem State University Board of Trustees.
- (2) Responsibility for trust fund administration rests with the President and the Vice President for Finance and Business. Records should be maintained in accordance with proper accounting procedures including documentation of receipts, disbursements and bank accounts.
- (3) All trust fund activities are subject to regular audit inspection by the State Auditor's Office.
- (4) Clear definitions, goals and objectives shall be established for each trust fund. An annual budget will be developed, reviewed by the President and submitted to the Board of Trustees for approval. Such budgets should include sufficient detail to permit the identification of major expenditures over $500,000 in a fiscal year.
- (5) The President or designee shall provide an accounting of trust fund revenues and expenditures to the Board of Trustees on a quarterly basis. Audited financial statements shall be submitted to the Department of Higher Education, the Office of the State Auditor and the Office of the State Comptroller on an annual basis. Additional reports may be requested at the discretion of the Board of Trustees or the appropriate State Department/Office.
- (6) The level of detail in the quarterly reports must be sufficient to satisfy Board of Trustees' inquiries and audit requirements and should also include: certification by the President or designee that all records were maintained in accordance with proper procedures, including documentation of receipts, disbursements and bank accounts, and that all expenditures were made to advance Salem State University's mission.
- (7) The Finance and Facilities Committee of the Board of Trustees shall review the report and it should be provided to the full Board of Trustees. The president is responsible for reporting any violations of trust fund expenditure standards to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for follow-up action taken to address each violation.
- (8) As necessary, the Risk Management and Audit (RMA) Committee of the Board of Trustees will receive reports by Auditors for review and discussion with the full Board of Trustees. The RMA Committee reviews an annual external audit prior to its acceptance by the full Board of Trustees. Furthermore, the RMA Committee reviews audited financial statements and financial compliance reports.

- (9) Wherever specific expenditures require prior approval, the approval of the annual budget by the Board of Trustees satisfies prior approval requirements for any expenditure.
- (10) The President or his/her designee has discretion over individual contracts where trust funds are used up to $500,000 except in the following circumstances which require prior approval of the board chair:
  - a. Expenditures which personally benefit the President, if any, which shall not be in violation of the State Ethics laws.
  - b. Expenditures for furnishings or decoration of the President's office or home;
  - c. Expenditures for fees or individual membership dues over $500 except for fees or dues associated with professional organizations that directly advance the mission; or that support licensure/certifications required by an employee in the course of his/her job responsibility.
  - d. Expenditures for trustee travel;
  - e. Expenditures for purchase or lease of motor vehicles used by the President or other administrators.
- (11) Individual annual expenditures for contracts over $500,000 require the prior approval of the Board of Trustees which can be granted through approval of the budget schedule identifying them. In rare cases when approval of the full Board of Trustees is not immediately available, the Executive Committee of the Board may grant verbal approval on behalf of the Board of Trustees. Such an action must be reported at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the full Board of Trustees.

Prohibited Expenditures

The following expenditures are expressly prohibited:

- (1) Expenditures which would be in violation of state ethics laws or other applicable laws.
- (2) Purchase or lease of vehicles for the exclusive use of employees other than the president. Vehicle(s) for the exclusive use of the president, if any, shall be governed by the terms of an employment contract duly approved by the Board of Trustees.
- (3) Contributions to individuals seeking elected public office or to political action committees (PACs) or equivalent organizations
- (4) Personal loans granted to university staff or members of the Board of Trustees. (This prohibition excludes regular financial aid programs at the institution.)

(5) Initiation fees and membership dues for private clubs.

Categories of Allowable Expenditure

- (1) Expenditures of a Personal Nature
  - a. Whenever expenditure would personally benefit or might be seen to personally benefit an individual, that person is prohibited from approving such expenditure, regardless of the dollar amount. In all such circumstances, the President or his/her designee must approve the expenditure in advance.
  - b. In the case of the President, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees must provide approval of such expenditures which will be reported to the Risk Management and Audit Committee on an annual basis.
- (2) General Campus Projects
  - a. When furnishings or decorations are paid from university funds for the President's home or office, they must have the prior approval of the Board of Trustees. All such expenditures shall conform to University and state policies and procurement regulations and guidelines.
  - b. Contractor and consultant fees paid from trust funds shall conform to state law pertaining to such activities.
  - c. Publications, including Presidential reports, newsletters, advertisements, magazines, invitations should demonstrate moderation and good taste.
  - d. Individual membership fees for civic, academic and/or professional organizations must have prior approval of the President or his/her designee except for fees or dues associated with professional organizations that directly advance the mission or licensure/certification required by responsibility. In the case of the President, the Board of Trustees must give prior approval.
  - e. Modest contributions to charitable organizations are permissible provided they will further the public purpose of the University.
- (3) Travel and Subsistence Costs

Refer to the University Travel and Business Expense Policy which may change from time to time.

- (4) Personal and Student Loans
  - a. It is permissible to provide salary disbursements through the Commonwealth's Dynacash procedures to employees if the University cannot meet payroll due to technical or processing difficulties. (e.g. computer failure, problems with timesheet processing, etc.).

- b. In the case of students, loans can only be made by the President or the director of financial aid and should be made only via standardized financial aid loan programs or, rarely, in exceptional circumstances ("emergency loan").
- (5) Employee and Student Recognition Activities
  - a. Certain expenditures of trust funds to enhance employee and student morale or to recognize achievement, longevity, performance or retirement can be made in moderation. Gift cards may not be purchased as a form of recognition. (Refer to gift card policy). All recognition activities must comply with specific University policies and procedures (see Addendum).
- (6) Entertainment of University Donors, Alumni, Friends, Guests and Visitors
  - a. Such entertainment by any members of the university should be in moderation and good taste.
  - b. It is appropriate for the University President to entertain guests in his/her home as part of official duties. Such entertainment should be in moderation and good taste.
  - c. Sports, theater and other entertainment tickets can be purchased with trust funds if the event is being held on campus or directly supports the University's programs. Such expenditures may be made to support student attendance at events.
- (7) Miscellaneous
  - a. Attracting individuals of high quality can require assisting them with the costs of relocation from other parts of the state or country. If considered necessary by the supervisor and with appropriate campus approvals (AVP Human Resources and the relevant vice president), university departments may pay a new employee a reasonable transition allowance to cover their personal moving, relocation and employment transition costs. If a transition allowance is paid, the allowance will be taxable to the employee and paid via Payroll. The allowance must be (1) authorized in advance, (2) documented in writing to the employee and for the human resource files, and (3) directly related to the commencement of employment at Salem State University.
  - b. Modest purchases of flowers, gifts and cards from trust funds may be made by the President or his/her designee. Appropriate occasions include but are not limited to: death or illness of an employee, student, trustee or person of special importance to the University, or immediate family member of said persons; appreciation for contributions that enhance the mission of the University.

Closing Comments

As noted previously, these standards for the expenditure of trust funds are not all-inclusive. It would be impossible to outline every possible type of expenditure which might be made utilizing these funds. However, when a trust fund expenditure decision must be made, it should be made in recognition of the public nature of these funds and in moderation and good taste.

Salem State University Trust Fund Document

The Board of Trustees of Salem State University establishes Trust Funds as authorized by Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 15A, Section 5 and Chapter 73, Section 14. These statutes authorize the University, through its Board of Trustees, to create trust funds to finance and account for certain campus projects, programs and activities. The Board of Trustees shall establish those fees required to maintain a reasonable balance of unrestricted operating funds.

These statutes also stipulate that income received (other than state and federal appropriations) be held in trust and be expended for the purposes for which each trust fund is established. Trust Funds are used to provide an accounting structure within which the University shall operate those activities deemed necessary for the operation and maintenance of those University projects, programs and activities directly associated with the particular trust fund.

The Salem State University Board of Trustees shall be the primary legal entity responsible for the collection of revenues and expenditures of funds associated with these accounts. The Board of Trustees delegates the authority to operate trust funds to the President, who in turn delegates the following responsibilities to the Vice President for Finance and Business:

- (1) Establishing and maintaining accurate records of all transactions affecting the fund balance of each account. Records shall be maintained in accordance with proper accounting procedures, including documentation of receipts, disbursements and bank accounts.
- (2) Maintaining cash collected in the name of the trust fund within an approved banking establishment as approved by the chief financial officer
- (3) Complying with all Massachusetts General Laws, which may directly or indirectly affect the nature of expenditures from the trust funds, and compliance with all guidelines and standards, issued by the Governor of Massachusetts under his/her executive authority.
- (4) Providing the President with a detailed accounting of trust fund expenditures on a routine basis. The President or her designee shall provide quarterly reports to the Board of Trustees for review. Such reports are disseminated to the Board of Trustees through the Finance and Facilities committee.

FY2017 University All Funds Budget

Salem State University presents its Fiscal Year 2017 All Funds Budget totaling $182.0 million. This budget relies on assumptions about all activities as of early May 2016 which is especially relevant for the state appropriation, student enrollment, and tuition and fee rates.

Trust Funds

In the context of Massachusetts public higher education, non-appropriated or locally generated funds are known as Trust Funds. Growth in trust fund revenues, which provide the means to accomplish much of the mission of the university, has been substantial. Salem State is updating its Trust Fund Guidelines, a document which conveys formal guidance regarding the appropriate manner of spending these locally-generated revenues. An important component of the pending Trust Fund Guidelines document is the grouping of like activities, currently accounted for in over 400 individual funds within the university's accounting system, into ten formally identified Trust Funds. Through the motion which accompanies this budget document, FY2017 budgets are being established for each of the ten trust funds. Going forward, financial reports that are provided to the Board of Trustees on a regular basis will present the revenues and expenses for each trust fund, in order to monitor trust fund performance. Appendix I describes each of the Trust Funds. Examples of several are the Grants Trust Fund (federal, state, and other grantfunded activities) and the Residence Halls Trust Fund Guidelines reserve to the Board of Trustees the right to approve contract spending in excess of $500 thousand. Through adoption of the budget including Appendix II, the Board is pre-approving such contracts for spending up to the amounts shown in FY2017.

Transition to All Funds Budget

Thus, this is a year of transition for Salem State budgeting in which we have expanded the scope from an operating budget to an all funds budget. Contemporaneously with the update of the Trust Fund Guidelines, the university is putting forward an FY17 budget for each Trust Fund, and the total is known as the All Funds Budget. The majority of the operating activity continues to be accounted in what has been named the Educational and General (E&G) Trust Fund. The E&G Trust Fund includes the salaries, utilities, and operating costs supported by tuition and fees, as well as the salaries/fringe benefit expenses primarily for instruction which are funded by the state appropriation. The combination of updating the Trust Fund Guidelines and formalizing the budgeting and reporting of Trust Fund activity represents an important improvement in the ability of the Board of Trustees to exercise its fiduciary responsibility to oversee the university's financial operations.

Development of an initial all funds budget is a very complex task. No doubt accuracy will improve over time, with experience. A good faith effort has been made to properly project all revenues and spending for each trust fund. Variable activity, such as gifts and grants, is particularly difficult to project with precision. Since an all funds budget has not historically been established for SSU, analyses comparing budgets for FY2016 and FY2017 would be confusing or misleading. For context, this document presents actual financial statement results from FY2015, projected year-end results for FY2016 and the all funds budget plan for FY2017.

Key elements of the FY2017 budget include

- State base appropriation that is equal to FY2016 state funding of $44.0 million. This occurs because the FY16 performance-based formula funding and the supplemental state support received during FY16 for FY15 unfunded collective bargaining increases is rolled into the base for FY2017. The FY2017 state appropriation revenue budget is higher than FY2016, however, for two reasons: The university assumes additional performance-based formula funding for FY2017 of $230 thousand and the state pays the increased fringe benefits costs for those employees whose salary is funded by the state appropriation.
- No state revenue budgeted to address the FY2016 or FY2017 collective bargaining increases for state-funded employees, consistent with the FY2017 budget submitted by the Governor and recommended by the House,
- Increases in revenue for tuition and fees resulting from rate increases and enrollment changes as well as from new entrepreneurial programs and differential pricing strategies for high-demand, capacity-constrained programs of $5.5 million or 6.9% above the FY16 projection.
- Anticipated receipt of $7.7 million in capital grant funding from DCAMM for the completion of the Sophia Gordon Center. This is a one-time revenue item.
- Compensation expense increases of $8.0 million or 7.1%, primarily driven by a major increase in fringe benefit rate, a portion of which is covered by the state as discussed above, and collective bargaining increases (unfunded by the state.)
- Infrastructure project budgets, for information technology and deferred maintenance, and contingencies.
- An additional $2 million in MSCBA assessment, repayment for bond funding of facilities. Both the North Campus Parking Garage and Viking Hall will be expensed for a full fiscal year for the first time in FY2017 and fee increases have been planned accordingly.

The aggregate result is a budget for FY2017 that encompasses all funds and which has revenues sufficient to finance the university's expenses.

Uncertainties

The effort to develop the All Funds budget was significant, with input garnered from multiple parties on campus as from state government; however some areas remain uncertain, including:

- The Commonwealth budget process is not expected to be complete until summer 2016 and consequently, the university's state appropriation could change. Further, during the fiscal year, the Commonwealth sometimes assigns mid-year reductions (so-called 9C cuts.)
- While the Enrollment Management team has worked hard to recruit, evaluate, and accept applicants and freshman deposits appear strong for the fall semester, any material change in undergraduate day enrollment, or credit hour enrollment from graduate and continuing education students would have a commensurate impact on net tuition and fee revenues.

- Labor costs may be increased by an anticipated new regulation from the Department of Labor increasing eligibility for payment of overtime wages to employees currently exempt from overtime. The university is monitoring the situation. We would have to address an increase of perhaps $200-250 thousand from a contingency budget in FY2017.
- The budget presented includes funding for new projects for information technology and facilities projects. However, carryforward figures related to projects previously authorized but not completed will only be available once the fiscal year closes and therefore are not included.

Revenues [Refer to Table 1]

University revenues from all sources excluding capital grants are budgeted to increase by 6.1% over FY2016 projected results, primarily from a combination of enrollment, student charges, grants, and state-paid fringe benefits. Including the $7.7 million one-time funding to complete the Sophia Gordon Center, all funds budgeted revenue is approximately 10% or $16.5 million over FY16 projected results.

Student Charges [Refer to Tables 2, 3, and 4]

Total revenue from student tuition and fee charges is slated to increase by $5.5 million or 6.9%. A $400 increase to the University Fee will contributes approximately $2.4 million. Capital improvement fees are being raised as planned to help finance the cost of the parking garage; these additional fees will generate $1.1 million towards debt assessment payments to the MSCBA.

The university has some high-demand, constrained capacity programs such as nursing, biology, education, and social work. For those programs, the university is implementing differential pricing that will enhance revenue while keeping the university's pricing in-line with competitors. These new program fees will be applied only to new freshmen and transfer students in this initial year. Differential program fee revenue is expected to generate approximately $216 thousand for FY2017 and grow to over $600 thousand by FY2021. As more undergraduate students opt for online courses, the university is instituting a $35 per credit premium for this delivery mode; which is expected to yield $683 thousand in new revenue.

The continuing education course fee has been increased by $18 per credit or approximately 8.4% yielding $315 thousand in additional course fee revenue. New entrepreneurial degree completion programs will be launched in order to meet the needs of continuing education students including an accelerated bachelor of nursing and a FAST BAC program enabling North Shore Community College associates degree recipients to complete their business degree within fifteen months.

The graduate division is increasing course fees by $8 per credit or 3.6% and expects enrollment to track close to FY2016 levels. Simultaneously, a new, cohort-based masters program in social work held on Saturdays has been launched and is exceeding initial enrollment expectations. An added benefit to this alternative delivery scheduling is that it allows the program to pull from a greater geographic dispersion than a weeknight program. When combined, these changes within the graduate school should yield approximately $140 thousand in new revenues.

Matriculation fees and other fee changes will add approximately $674 thousand.

Financial Aid: Scholarships and Grants [Refer to Table 5]

An additional $490 thousand will be invested in scholarship and grant financial aid, including institutional funding for merit scholarships within the College of Arts and Sciences and for the SAEL program designed to prepare students to teach English as a Second Language.

State Support [Refer to Table 6]

The Governor and House support a General Appropriations Act (GAA) base appropriation for Salem State of $44 million, as compared to $43.1 million in GAA for FY2016. While the FY2017 amount has not been finalized, it does present significant fiscal challenges for Salem State's FY2017 budget. An assumption of $230K in performance-based funding in included in the university's budget. Salary expenses are traditionally applied against the appropriation because the state then pays the applicable fringe benefits. These state-paid fringe benefits are recorded both as revenue and expense. Since the fringe benefits rates have increased substantially from FY2016, from 30.8% to 35.2%, "revenue" from state-paid fringe benefits increases by nearly $1.9 million. Thus, budgeted state support grows from $55.9 million to 58.1 million year over year, but declines as a percent of total revenue (excluding state capital grants) from 34.0% to 33.3%.

Auxiliary Enterprises

On paper, total revenue from Auxiliary Enterprises is budgeted to go up by $2.3 million or 11.2% over projected revenue from FY2016. However, contributing to this is a reclassification of revenues previously reflected in Sales and Services of Educational Activities. Actual increases will come from residence hall rate increases of 4.0% across all room types, parking fee revenue, and commissions from vendors. No additional residence hall capacity is budgeted in FY2017, with Viking Hall having come on line in FY2016.

Grants and Contracts

Revenue from federal, state, and private grants and contracts will grow by an estimated $1.4 million (7.5%) in support of financial aid as well as for academic advising and peer mentoring, English as a Second Language instruction, and grants related to Title IX/sexual violence services.

Miscellaneous Income

Income from the remaining revenue categories, including sales and services of educational activities, gifts, and investment income, will produce a net decline in revenue over FY2016 projected results due in part to the reclassification discussed above. In addition, certain large gifts transferred from the Foundation during FY16 are not budgeted to recur.

Expenses

Total expenses excluding financial aid and scholarships will increase 9.4% or $15.0 million. [Refer to Table 7]

Compensation [Refer to Tables 8-12]

Compensation is impacted primarily by three factors: collective bargaining increases, state-mandated fringe benefits rates, and fluctuations in staffing levels. Overall compensation costs will rise $8.0 million or approximately 7.1% over projected FY2016 expenses. Each of the three campus labor unions will receive increases in FY2017. With post tenure review, promotion, and reclassifications, the budget for salary increases is approximately $3.5 million. As discussed, the fringe benefit rate is increasing significantly thus fringe benefits expenses will increase by $4.4 million, of which $1.9 million will be funded by the Commonwealth. A reallocation of the position of vice president for marketing and communications has been made in order to fund a vice president for diversity and inclusion position.

Payments to the MSCBA for Viking Hall, the parking garage, and other facilities will require additional resources of $2 million. As discussed, those recurring expenses have been addressed with recurring revenues as planned in the form of increases in rents, and capital improvement and parking fees.

Support is a broad category covering a variety of administrative expenses, supplies, leases on space and equipment, contracts, and contingencies. Investments in facilities infrastructure, deferred maintenance projects, and information technology upgrades are driving this category higher in FY2017. Miscellaneous expenses such as interest expense, depreciation, and utilities, will not have a material change in the coming fiscal year.

Conclusion

Despite the fiscal challenges facing Salem State University and important investments in people, infrastructure and programs, the university has balanced its budget for FY2017 and will continue to deliver a high quality, affordable education and supportive student experience.

Topic: DHE Vision Project Reports

You are receiving two Vision Project reports at this Board Meeting, June 8, 2016. The first is entitled The Degree Gap: Honing In on College Access, Affordability & Completion in Massachusetts, June 2016 and represents data from all three segments: State Universities, Community Colleges and UMass. You will find Salem State mentioned in four key areas: Page 13, Nursing; Page 24, CommUniverCity; Page 34, Retaining Men of Color; and Page 47, Civic Engagement.

The second document is entitled Vision Project Dashboard, Salem State University, May 2016. This is the DHE's dashboard report for our university. I would like to highlight a few points in the document for you.

- Page 6, College Participation, Enrollment Rates. Our enrollments at the undergraduate level have decreased 4% over the past five years. The two factors in play here are a few years of slightly smaller entering classes (both freshmen and transfer) and the improved graduation rate. The faster a student graduates, the less students are enrolled – a good problem. We expect our numbers to be essentially level for the coming year. For the graduate enrollments, we very intentionally decreased our enrollments by reducing the number of non-degree seeking students in our programs. This action was taken to strengthen the quality of the programs and to eliminate external vendors from offering programs through our name. We will be expecting to see an increase in graduate enrollments this year.
- 2. Page 7, College Participation, Population Rates. Our success in recruiting diverse candidates is evident in the rankings for both African-American and Latino/a students. For men, we are right in the middle. Just a note, the far left bar is Mass Maritime. Their challenge is recruiting women.
- 3. Page 8, College Completion, Progress Rates. For the Two-Year Developmental Math Progress, the data collection method used by the DHE does not align with our program of study. A student who completes a remedial math course can meet the college-level requirement through numerous courses offered by a variety of departments, not just the Math Department. Statistics is an example, or economics. DHE does not capture these courses and therefore we appear to lag our colleagues. The DHE is aware of this dataerror and they have indicated they will be adjusting their process.

For the Retention Rate, our percentage in the Fall of 2014 was 81.1%. In the Fall of 2015 it was 79.86%. It is a decrease, but slight, and more noise as a single data point than a trend.

- 4. Page 8, College Completion, Graduation Rates, Six-Year First-time Freshmen. The data provided here is from the academic year 2013 2014. Our graduation rate for that time period was 45.9%. For academic year 2014 2015, our rate was 49.9%. This year our projected is 51%. I expect we will move to the left once this data is included.
- 5. Page 9, College Completion Gaps. We are seeing success in our African-American, Latino/a, and Pell-Eligible students. Our men are not progressing as well and we are beginning new programming to address this concern.
- 6. Page 10, Workforce Alignment, Overall. We continue to increase the number of degrees awarded with this past May being our largest class in history.
- 7. Page 11, Workforce Alignment, Degrees Conferred, High-Need Fields. The STEM chart is looking at percentages and unfortunately, without a science building, we are lagging behind our colleagues in producing STEM graduates. On the other hand, we are excelling with health care degrees. I would have expected us to be at the top of the ranking and will find out which institution is to the left of us.
- 8. Page 12 & 13, Workforce Alignment Gaps. We are essentially level in these areas and are exceeding the expected number of African-American and Latino/a graduates in STEM and for African-Americans in Health Care. Men are lagging in both areas.
- 9. Page 14, Use of Resources. We are in the middle of our cohort for the Faculty-student ratio at 15 students for each faculty member (both full-time equivalents). We are at the low end of our colleagues in this category and the work that our finance group is advancing will allow us to better understand our use of resources and we will strengthen the ratios. For affordability, we are just a bit above the average for cost but with a small margin. And, for Fundraising. Here we have knocked it out of the park!

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Toward an Inclusive Campus Community

The demographic changes that have long been forecast for the nation are upon us and will continue to accelerate. While our efforts to bring a more diverse group of students into higher education have been largely successful, progress toward meaningful change in campus academic and social environments has been criticized as too slow. Presidents and boards are under pressure to respond to students' needs and demands with empathy while creating safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environments for all. At the same time, we must ensure that our campuses remain places for open and robust educational discourse where a range of opinions and ideas can be aired and debated. This session addressed the call for boards and presidents to be proactive in creating inclusive communities, while rising to the leadership challenge of positioning our institutions and all of our students for a successful future.

Introduction - Jeffrey L. Humber Jr., board member, Gallaudet University and member, AGB Board of Directors

Panelists

- Nelson A. Carbonell, board chair, George Washington University, and member, AGB Board of Directors
- Catherine E. Lhamon, assistant secretary for civil rights, U.S. Department of Education
- Michael A. Middleton, interim president, University of Missouri System
- Janet B. Reid, board member, The Ohio State University
- John Silvanus Wilson Jr., president, Morehouse College, and member, Harvard University Board of Overseers

Moderator - Claudio Sanchez, education correspondent, National Public Radio (NPR)

I. Facts

• Events (forms of protest and civil action) of the past year have led to the unseating of several university leaders.

- Institutions of higher education have a more diverse student body in 2016.
- There is less diversity in all other aspects of college life and in departments.
- There are lessons to be learned from the University of Missouri.

• Universities succeed in enrolling a diverse student body, but fail to support students once they are on campus.

II. Question: How can higher education better prepare for diversity?

- Maintain a goal of inclusion that may be defined as a welcoming and supportive environment in which all students may learn.
- BOT must educate themselves and develop clear definitions of the terms "diversity" and "inclusion".
- Universities must provide training to boards, staff, faculty, and students.
- Universities need to connect with community partners.
- Acknowledge that boards can be "blind" to the issues, may fear being misquoted, or be concerned that comments may be misconstrued when making public statements.
- Need to "lean in" to the issues. It's not enough to be quantitative need to be qualitative as well. It's about more than the numbers.

• Understand that students will argue: It took too long! You didn't hear us! It's not enough!

III. Advice

Catherine E. Lhamon, U.S. Department of Education - Civil Rights

- The department has 43 active complaints as of April 2016.
- 10,000 complaints per year are defined as "statements of degradation".
- The duty of the department is to uphold the law.

Michael Middleton, interim president of University of Missouri

- Listen fully.
- Be empathetic.
- Create conditions for dialogue and strive to maintain an ongoing dialogue.
- Get out in front issues.
- Be fully aware of what you are taking about don't assume you understand the issues.
- Work on educating students and faculty by exposing the latter to the impact of "slights" (inappropriate comments or jokes). Faculty may think they are connecting with students, but must understand the effects of their behavior, words, and actions.
- Be aware of micro-aggressive behavior and micro-inequities of policy or practice.
- If it's important, declare it! Make it a pillar!
- Require search committees to be trained in how to get prospective candidates of diverse backgrounds.

John S. Wilson, president, Morehouse College, and member, Harvard University Board of Overseers

- Differentiate between noise and signals: Amplify the signal by putting your vision out there. As you amplify the signal, you dissipate the noise.
- Watch Spike Lee's movie, Two Fists Up!, together as a BOT.
- Avoid saying, "Look to your left, look to your right..." If they don't make it, it's on us.
- Rethink your mission.

Nelson Carbonell board chair, George Washington University, and member, AGB Board of Directors

- Be sensitive to the invisible attributes of your students (socio-economic, LGBTQ, transportation issues, housing concerns, metal health, food, work) the institution maintains a responsibility to address these issues and to provide systems that facilitate inclusion.
- Respond to the needs of all students.
- Diversity and Inclusion are fiduciary duties of the BOT, but don't do it because it's the "right thing to do". Students can read insincerity.

Janet B. Reid, board member, The Ohio State University

- Work towards the goal of producing good citizens.
- Be aware of the seriousness of this issue.
- Boards need to support presidents in an effort to increase diversity on campuses.

Creating Effective Institutional Diversity Strategies - Preparing for Fisher II

Alyce Davis, Ed.D - Summary AGB National Conference, April 17-19, 2016

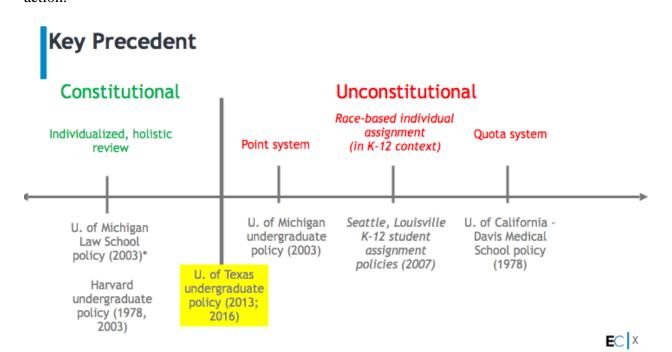

Access, diversity, and inclusion policies at colleges and universities continue to be in the spotlight, given student demonstrations and the anticipated second U.S. Supreme Court decision in Fisher v. University of Texas at Austin (expected by June 2016). In this expert briefing, Art Coleman focused on the legal and policy framework for creating effective, sustainable diversity policies and practices at institutions of higher education. He also previewed the key issues and prospective response strategies that governing boards and institutional leaders should develop to prepare for the Court's new decision on Fisher.

Arthur L. Coleman, managing partner and co-founder, EducationCounsel LLC

Background

Fisher v. University of Texas, 570 U.S. ____ (2013), is a United States Supreme Court case concerning the affirmative action admissions policy of the University of Texas at Austin. The Supreme Court voided the lower appellate court's ruling in favor of the University and remanded the case, holding that the lower court had not applied the standard of strict scrutiny, articulated in Grutter v. Bollinger (2003) and Regents of the University of California v. Bakke (1978), to its admissions program. The Court's ruling in Fisher took Grutter and Bakke as given and did not directly revisit the constitutionality of using race as a factor in college admissions.

The suit, brought by undergraduate Abigail Fisher in 2008, asked that the Court declare the University's race-conscious admissions inconsistent with Grutter, which had in 2003 established that race had an appropriate but limited role in the admissions policies of public universities. While reasserting that any consideration of race must be "narrowly tailored", with Fisher the Court did not go on to overrule Grutter, a relief for civil rights groups who feared that the Court would end affirmative action.

Fisher I

Fisher I (2013) did not render a decision in favor of either party. Instead, a seven of eight Justices voting instructed the lower court on remand to apply a more rigorous standard of review, especially in its analysis of race neutral alternatives considered and pursued by UT.

U.S. Supreme Court heard oral arguments in Fisher II in December 2015. A decision is due by end of term in June 2016 – but could come sooner.

The same facts and core arguments were presented in round two, but the emphasis on some issues is different this time around.

Fisher II

- Avoid both over- and under-reaction to the decision.
- Let your mission be your guide.
- Confirm your intention to act within the law.

Institutional Response

Alignment across institutional programs, functions, and offices creates the greatest potential for achieving diversity goals, with direct management and cost benefits. (Even though efforts to support alignment, such as ongoing assessment of diversity programs, will require resources.)
Research recommends a "sustained and coordinated effort" to achieve diversity goals in the short and long term.

• Inventorying of policies and programs through a multidisciplinary team is a concrete first step that institutions can take.

Enrollment

- What is the institution's recruitment "footprint"?
- What class composition would reflect an institution's broadbased diversity goals?
- What enrollment strategies can help enroll desired applicants?

- How do alumni reflect back on their experiences that may speak to the longerterm benefits of diversity?
- How do employers describe how graduates engage in the workplace?
