

Parents and Families

Many parents and family members of Salem State students make gifts of any size to the university. Their generosity builds resources on campus and strengthens our programs. Gifts from parents and families have immediate value and impact. Please consider making a gift to one of the campaign priorities, a special initiative or to where the need is greatest. Thank you for your support!

For more information, contact Wendy Davison at wdavison@salemstate.edu or 978.542.2603.