

Welcome!

Welcome to Salem State University. We understand that the college search process is not an easy task. We hope that through exploring our website and visiting our campus, you will discover that Salem State is the right place for you.

When you visit us you will find that our campus is one that is on the move. Academics, residence life, sports, and student activities combine to create a vibrant and exciting community atmosphere where something is always happening.

With over 50 groups and clubs, 17 varsity teams, a strong intramural sports program, an award-winning theater program, and hundreds of student activities scheduled throughout the year, our campus is alive and infused with an energy!

Our campus celebrates the diversity of its students and faculty members—and their variety of interests—and we learn from each other as a community of engaged learners. You can count on faculty and administrators to support your success, and who will ensure you are well prepared for your future career and life after college.
