

University Policy Statements

“Salem State University is committed to providing equal access to the educational experience for all students in compliance with Section 504 of The Rehabilitation Act and The Americans with Disabilities Act and to providing all reasonable academic accommodations, aids and adjustments. Any student who has a documented disability requiring an accommodation, aid or adjustment should speak with the instructor immediately. Students with Disabilities who have not previously done so should provide documentation to and schedule an appointment with the Office for Students with Disabilities and obtain appropriate services.

“In the event of a university declared critical emergency, Salem State University reserves the right to alter this course plan. Students should refer to www.salemstate.edu for further information and updates. The course attendance policy stays in effect until there is a college declared critical emergency. In the event of an emergency, the instructor will send all students an email (using their Salem State email address) describing alternative educational plans for this course.” In addition, please refer to the alternative educational plans for this course located on Canvas (<https://elearning.salemstate.edu>). Students should review the plans and gather all required materials before an emergency is declared.”
